Story

William and Kristie both "swiped right" on July 30, 2014 in New York City, but it would take several more weeks before the pair met up for their first date. After some playful banter on Tinder (and some Google stalking), Kristie decided he was harmless and gave him her number. Her subconscious had other ideas though and she accidentally gave him the wrong number! It took a couple of weeks for her to realize her mistake and share the correct number, and they finally set a date to meet up on August 23, 2014 at Ulysses Tavern. In true William fashion, he scheduled the date within a 5 block radius from his house, meaning Kristie would have to travel all the way from the Upper East Side to the Financial District. As Kristie was making her way downtown, she received a text from William saying that he was running "about 45 minutes late". (Years later it was discovered that William was on another date, tsk tsk, Mr. William Yeack). Overall, the first date went well. Kristie and William enjoyed drinks and conversation at Ulysses Tavern, explored a pirate ship in the Seaport District, had their first kiss, and enjoyed another drink at the Trading Post. The night ended around 9pm when William fell asleep at the second bar.

The next few months went a little something like this: They went on a date, Kristie texted William, "Thanks for the date!", William would respond 3-7 days later, Kristie wondered, "Is he ghosting me?"....on and on this went, until....

While William was with his family for Thanksgiving that same year, he was crowdsourcing opinions for who he should date: Kristie or another girl - DUN DUN DUNNN! Their pictures were up on the wall and votes were being cast. Kristie ended up winning with 2 out of 3 votes - close one! It was settled, William was going to ask Kristie to be his girlfriend! On December 19, 2014 William and Kristie officially became boyfriend and girlfriend. They spent the next few years traveling the world, moving in, and constantly making each other laugh.

On March 30, 2018, William got down on one knee and asked Kristie to marry him in Napa Valley, California.

Photoshoots

This section outlines all of the planned photoshoots.

Engagement

On Thursday, William and Kristie will dress-up in a Suit and Dress and go around town taking pictures.

Old Course

Taking photos inside of the Old Course can be an option if there is inclement weather.

Swilken Bridge

The iconic Swilken Bridge on the Old Course shows a classic view of St Andrews.

Golf Tee Macro Shot

Close-up of rings next to a golf tee.

North Beach

This is the main beach that runs along the old course.

Gazebo

There is a Gazebo near Hamilton Hall that offers a good spot for photos if there is inclement weather.

Pier Walk

The Pier Walk, located at the edge of town is iconic. However, it is relatively far from the other photo spots and is really only good when the weather is perfect.

West Sands

This is a more secluded beach that could offer some good shots of the beach.

Preparation

Kristie will host several of her friends at her suite in the Old Course Hotel. William will get ready with friends at Agnes Blackadder Hall.

Ceremony

Directly after the ceremony, we will take a series of photos in the immediate vicinity around the Chapel and Cathedral.

St Salvador's Quadrangle

Directly after the ceremony, we will take shots with friends and family outside of the church in St Salvador's Quadrangle.

1. All Guests
2. All Friends
3. All Family
4. Yeack Extended Family
5. Louderman Extended Family
6. Yeack Immediate Family
7. Louderman Immediate Family
8. Yeack and Louderman Immediate Family
9. William and Kristie

Following this the rest of the shots will be just with William and Kristie.

St Salvator's Arcade

Immediately after the family photographs, we will take photos in the Arcade directly outside of St Salvator's cathedral.

St Andrews Castle

The St Andrews Castle is a ruin perched on top of a cliff overlooking the sea. This offers several possible angles but there is very little cover so it is not ideal if there is rain.

St Andrews Cathedral

An iconic shot. This is especially cool on a foggy / overcast day. Since William and Kristie would be standing under the cathedral arch this location works even if there is rain.

Reception

The Reception will primarily be ad hoc photos, but we would like to get one of the couple in front of the venue right as we arrive.
